OBITUARY EDITED FROM GRANT TRIBUNE SENTINEL

Donald Eugene Larsen, of Cascabel, passed away Feb. 4, 2008 after a short battle with cancer. He was born April 14 1942, in Omaha and raised in Grant, Nebraska. Don moved to Tucson to attend the University of Arizona, where he met his wife and married in 1970.

As a Navy veteran Don served in Vietnam 1967-1968. He was the manager of Tucson Fuel Company for 20 years before retiring and moving to the Benson area where he owned and operated San Pedro Tool Company. He retired again and moved to the Cascabel area and was enjoying country life, fishing, hunting and traveling in his RV.

A memorial service was held Saturday, Feb. 9 at 1 p.m. in Benson Arizona. He was preceded in death by his son Michael. He was survived by his wife of 37 years, Linda Larsen; daughter Amanda; grandson Sean Stevens of Corona de Tucson; brother Ronald; nephew Scott; nieces Lori Raikes; and Lisa Hornaday of Indianapolis,
